ATTACK MADE ON INVADERS BY ITALIANS

Violent Artillery Duel
Takes Place In Asiago
Sector

LACK OF DEFINITE NEWS REGARDING ENGAGEMENT

Unrest Still Prevails Among the Working People of Germany

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches.)

Italy has furnished a military surprise by launching an attack of apparently considerable force on her mountain front in midwinter. The blow comes on the Asiago plateau where the austro-German invaders were halted early in the winter in their effort to push down to the Italian plains west of the Brenta river.

Berlin heralded the attack yesterday in reporting the breaking out of violent artillery duels in the Sette Comuni region—the Asiago sector. This force was reported to have reached a climax at dawn on Monday in the vicinity of Col del Rosso, which height stands about midway between Asiago and the Brenta.

The supplementary German official report of last night, which was not received until today, announces the opening of the assault in this region describing it as a violent attack. There were no accompanying details.

In the lack of more definite news the probability suggests itself that the Italian effort is one somewhat similar to that of the French a few weeks ago, east of the Brenta, which resulted in a penetration of the Austro-German line for a considerable distance and the subsequent withdrawal of the enemy from a rather extended area proving the entire position—notably, that the Italians may be endeavoring to effect a rectification in their line with a view to make good more difficulty any further attempt of the enemy to advance.

Contradictory advices from Petrograd throw doubt on the Russian attitude towards the continuance of the Brest-Litovsk peace negotiations. A semi-official statement declared that Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik foreign minister, had not returned to Brest-Litovsk, and added that M. Kamenoff, one of the Russian delegates (Continued on Page 2, Col. 1.)

RIGID ORDER TO BE ENFORCED IN SALE OF FLOUR

Cincinnati, Jan. 29.—"Advice make it imperative that the combination rule (requiring the sale of an equal amount of substitute with each sale of wheat flour) shall be enforced literally and absolutely on both wholesalers and retailers until further notice."

This order was received today by County Food Controller Blume from State Food Administrator Croxton, Columbus, with the further instructions that those grocers who have not enough of the substitute either limit or suspend entirely their sale of wheat flour.

Dr. Blume's first order indicated that leniency would be shown in regard to the enforcement of the new wheat sale but that this latter decision states that it is imperative to enforce the rule to the letter, and those unable to comply must stop selling wheat flour.

"I will notify the grocers of Cincinnati at once that they must sell equal amounts of substitutes or not sell any wheat flour," said Dr. Blume.

ICE MOVING OUT OF MONONGAHELA

Pittsburgh, Jan. 29.—Reports reached the weather bureau here today that the Monongahela river was breaking rapidly from Fairmont, W. Va., north, and the heavy ice was moving out. The ice in some places is fully two feet thick, and averages about 18 inches.

It is estimated here this morning that fully 100,000 men will be able to resume their customary employment as soon as the river is open, as coal for mills has been tied up.

RED GUARDS CONTROL CAPITAL OF FINLAND

Copenhagen, Jan. 29.—The Red Guard has won complete control of Helsinki, capital of Finland, a Stockholm dispatch to the National Tidnings reports. It is not known whether the Finnish government officials escaped from the revolutionaries.

ALIEN ENEMY HAS RIGHT TO SUE

Mme. Margarethe Arndt-Ober.

Supreme Court Justice Gavegan of New York has just handed down a decision that is of import to alien enemies. He allowed Mme. Margarethe Arndt-Ober, prima donna, to maintain her suit for $50,000 against the Metropolitan Opera company for alleged breach of contract. She was discharged after war was declared because she is a German.

MAROONED ON PACKETS AND CARRIED AWAY

Pedro, Ky., Jan. 29.—Descending ice gorges in the Tennessee and Ohio rivers, converging here today swept the winter fleet of packets and other craft from their moorings at up river points and in the Paducah harbor and carried it on down the Ohio. Appeals for help from persons marooned on the ice bound craft plainly were heard as they were carried past this city.

A report from Metropolis, Ill., said several packets were seen standing on and in the ice as the flood passed that place. The number of boats caught in the torrent has not been determined. It was said that probably they would reach more than a dozen. A preliminary estimate of the damage, if all are lost, is placed at more than $200,000.

Eagle line steamboats, St. Louis packets, several Tennessee river and other small craft were in the harbor here when the gorge broke. Additional cables hastily were run to shore but failed to hold them as the pressure of the ice became greater and one by one they were torn from their moorings and swept on down the river.

The survivors of the helpless fleet are expected to reach Cairo, Ill., late this evening.

GREAT DAMAGE FROM FLOODS IN LOWLANDS.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 29.—High water on the Cumberland and Tennessee rivers was causing damage today in this state and Kentucky. The crest of the flood in the two rivers has not been reached and further damage is expected.

At Burnside, Ky., the Cumberland was higher than ever known there and the business section was flooded. The water had begun to recede there but in Nashville the crest is expected Thursday or Friday. Lowlands are under water and some car lines have been cut off.

At Knoxville the Tennessee river was 10.5 feet above flood mark with a stage of 25 feet expected by tonight. Many small craft are submerged and buildings along the river flooded.

ITALIANS BRING DOWN AIRPLANES; TAKE PRISONERS

Rome, Jan. 29.—Italian troops made a heavy attack yesterday on the northern mountain front and broke into the enemy lines, the war office reports. Reinforcements which the enemy was hurrying down the Nos and Campomulo valleys were dispersed by the artillery of the Italians and their allies.

Twelve enemy airplanes were brought down. The Italians held masters of the air everywhere. The Italians took more than 1,500 prisoners. They stormed enemy positions on the heights east of the Asiago basin and broke through at several points, resisting violent counter offensives.

ELECTROCUTION TONIGHT. Columbus, Jan. 29.—Charles Burnett, slayer of John O'Brien, in Stark county last June, now confined in the death cell at the Ohio penitentiary will pay the price of his crime with death in the electric chair at five minutes after midnight, Thursday. He murdered O'Brien with a club.

FORTY-SEVEN TOLL CLAIMED IN AIR RAID

German Airplanes Made
Two Visits to London
During Last Night

ONE BROUGHT DOWN FROM HEIGHT OF 10,000 FEET

Fifteen Machines Took Part
In Attack In Which 169
Were Also Injured

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Jan. 29.—Forty-seven persons were killed and 169 injured in last night's air raid, it is announced officially.

All the victims of the raid were killed or wounded in London except for the death of one person and injury of seven. The material damage was not serious.

The loss of life in last night's raids was the heaviest caused by any of the new series of German aerial attacks which began early this winter, after a period of several weeks in which no such ventures were attempted. The casualty list is the largest since the raid of June 31, when 97 persons were killed and 427 wounded.

The last previous raid was on Dec. 18. Ten persons were killed and 70 wounded.

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Jan. 29.—About fifteen German airplanes, of which four or five reached London, took part in the first of two raids last night, it is announced officially. Only one of the raiders engaged in the second attack penetrated as far as the city.

London had been expecting an enemy air raid during the past week of moonlight nights but nothing had happened and the residents began to think they would escape altogether, when about 8 o'clock last night the arrival of the unwelcome visitors was announced.

The anti-aircraft guns were soon in action and continued firing intermittently for more than five hours, while the populace passed an anxious time indoors or underground shelters.

Great satisfaction was expressed when it was announced officially that one of the raiders had been brought down in Essex, falling in flames from a height of 10,000 feet. All three of the crew were burned to death. An indecisive engagement was fought by a British pilot with another raider over the sea. All the British pilots returned safely.

The announcement follows: "The latest information shows that two groups of raiders crossed (Continued on Page 7, Col. 5.)"

FINAL EFFORT TO SAVE THE LIFE OF CANTON MURDERER

Columbus, Jan. 29.—In a final effort to save the life of Charles Burnett, Canton murderer, sentenced to be electrocuted at the state penitentiary tomorrow midnight, Attorney Hemminger, representing counsel in his murder trial, appeared before Judge Charles M. Rogers of the Franklin county courts today with a formal notice requesting the empaneling of a jury to determine Burnett's insanity.

Burnett is reported to have been acting peculiarly for some months at the state penitentiary and Mr. Hemminger stated to the court that it was the opinion of a number of persons connected with the prison that he is insane. The notice was filed under a special state statute which provides that upon notice to the sheriff the court shall empanel a jury to test out the sanity of one sentenced to death.

Judge Rogers, however, after an examination of the statute decided that it was a part of the old code one section of which placed upon sheriffs the duty of executing persons condemned to death in their respective counties. The court held that while the duty of executing such sentences has been since centered upon the warden of the penitentiary, the remainder of the laws governing executions still play to the respective sheriffs and that the notice would have to be given to the sheriff in Stark county and a judge there would have to empanel a jury.

Mr. Hemminger then visited the governor's office to determine whether or not a stay of the execution might be secured in order that he might have sufficient time within which to present the notice to the proper officials in Stark county. No decision had been made by the governor's office this afternoon, but action was expected late today.

LARGE HOG SHIPMENT.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Pittsburgh, Jan. 29.—Two hundred car loads of hogs, held here yesterday by the snow blockade on the railroads crossing the Alleghenies, were started to the Philadelphia, New York and Boston Markets today, the largest shipment ever made from here. It was planned to hurry them through on fast time to relieve a possible shortage in the eastern markets.

TWO STOPS ON VICTORY ROAD TO BERLIN

Above—U. S. marines stopping on way from landing point to training camp in France. Below—At camp, lined up for gas drill.

The trains looked good to our marines when they landed in France after their long sea voyage and started for the camp to get their intensive preparation. They reckon each journey a lap on the race to Berlin. The boys above in the train are soon in line for gas mask drill, as shown below. Then to the trenches. Then through the boches and the boches' land—to Berlin!

CLAIM TROTSKY HAS LEFT FOR BREST-LITOVSK

(Associated Press Telegram)
Petrograd, Jan. 28.—Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik foreign minister and M. Kamenoff left Petrograd today for Brest-Litovsk to resume the peace negotiations with the central powers. The congress of the councils of workmen and soldiers' delegates, while denouncing imperialistic tenor of the German peace terms, approved all the actions of the Russian delegation and charged the government to continue the negotiations.

The congress adopted a resolution to this effect after the minority made up of minimalists and social revolutionists of the right, had sought vainly to persuade the adoption of a policy flatly against a separate peace. During the debate Foreign Minister Trotsky declared he could not give a guarantee that he would not sign a separate peace saying: "To call a separate peace a disgrace is blasphemy in the sight of blood covered Europe."

REPORT IS DENIED

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Jan. 29.—The report that M. Trotsky and M. Kamenoff are on the way back to Brest-Litovsk is denied by the semi-official Russian news agency. A dispatch sent out today by the news agency says that Kamenoff is going to Stockholm, London and Paris with the object of informing the allied governments concerning the progress of the peace pourparlers.

TRACTOR MEETING ATTRACTS FARMERS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, Jan. 29.—That the farmers of the state are more interested in tractors than anything else just now is indicated by the fact that the meeting at farmers' week at the Ohio State University to promote interest in this machine are more largely attended than any of the other meetings.

Because of transportation difficulties, the attendance will not be as large this year as last. Yesterday's registration was 609, compared with 1175 the first day last year. The total registration last year reached 4046. This year's attendance will not exceed 75 per cent of that number, and may be lower.

SEVEN DEAD FROM DRINKING EGG-NOG

(Associated Press Telegram)
Muskegon, Mich., Jan. 29.—Seven persons are dead, two others are expected to die, and nearly a score are ill as a result of an egg-nog party Sunday at Francis, Okla., at which denatured alcohol was used by mistake, according to word reaching here today.

FOOD SITUATION IN ITALY IS SERIOUS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Jan. 29.—Italy's food situation has become so serious, official dispatches from Rome today said, that restaurants in the province of Rome are prohibited from serving pastes and noodles, the most popular of all foods. This is an indication, the dispatch said, of the sacrifices, to which the Italians are obliged to submit in order that the necessary rationing for the troops may be provided.

PROPOSE LICENSING EATING PLACES AND LIMITING OF FOOD

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Jan. 29.—Extension of the provisions of the Lever act to include control of the distribution, manufacture and preservation of foodstuffs, is advocated by Food Administrator Hoover in a letter to Representative Anderson of the house agricultural committee, made public today. The extension of the measure of the Lever act, Mr. Hoover says, should include:

"Control of distribution in order that all classes and localities may fare alike, and that unnecessary consumption should be prevented."

"Control of use of foodstuffs, in food manufactures with a view to limiting the less essential manufacturers."

"Control of commodities critically necessary for the production and preservation of foodstuffs in order to prevent great losses of military sacrifices."

In addition to the increasing of wheatless and meatless days and reducing the percentage of wheat in flour, steps virtually taken already by the food administration, Mr. Anderson's bill proposed licensing of public eating places and the limiting of food served in them.

Mr. Hoover cited a number of typical cases, including sugar, and suggested that a saving to meet the shortage of 10 per cent could easily be effected by a reduction in the manufacture of candy and sweet drinks with manufacturers substituting other things to maintain their volume of business. In conclusion, he said:

"We have carried on an extensive campaign for voluntary conservation. The remnants, as they have developed during the last 60 days, are, I believe, greater than can be borne on a purely voluntary basis. I am perfectly willing to go on with the voluntary method, and I hope that it will succeed, but I think it only right to point out that if it shall fail, the grave responsibilities cannot be left upon my shoulders. If congress should consider that nothing further is necessary by way of legislation."

PREPARING TO BATTLE AGAINST THE ICE FLOES

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cincinnati, Jan. 29.—Final orders for the battle which rivermen will wage against the ice floes in the Ohio river when the gorges crumble were issued today. Every man was in his place on the boats and on menaced shipping valued at $1,000,000 in the Cincinnati harbor. Steam was raised on all craft operating under their own power. The elemental force of tons upon tons of ice will be met by every known attack that man has devised for this work it is asserted.

That the break in the ice at Cincinnati will come in the next 24 hours is the belief of Weather Forecaster Devereaux. He bases his belief on the sudden rise in the upper valley. A stage of 40 feet at Cincinnati is predicted, and this amount of water will sweep the ice before it.

Dispatches from Portsmouth today stated that the ice there had started to move but stopped after half an hour.

Rivermen believe that they will be able to save most of the property in the Cincinnati harbor. A fleet of 25 empty barges locked in the ice in the middle of the river opposite the Queen City beach will be swept down the river with the ice, but many of the barges may be saved if they manage to pass the bridge piers safely.

GAVE LIVES IN ATTEMPT TO SAVE FELLOW WORKMEN

(Associated Press Telegram)
Toledo, O., Jan. 29.—Fred Bauman, 32, and Fred Murphy, 55, gave their lives today to save Alexander Knaggs, 57. Knaggs was painting the interior of a huge vinegar tank when he was overcome by the fumes. Bauman and Murphy, descending into the tank, were overcome almost instantly. Other workmen, with ropes attached to their bodies, hoisted the three to the top.

Knaggs, whose nostrils were protruded by a damp sponge, revived, but physicians pronounced Bauman and Murphy dead in an hour. Both leave widows and children.

BLEW OUT GAS; FOUR ARE DEAD

(Associated Press Telegram)
Philadelphia, Jan. 29.—Four men were found asphyxiated in bed in a rooming house today. All were Mexicans.

According to the police one of the victims blew out the gas before being strangled with his companions. The men had been dead some time when discovered.

COMMITTEE TO RECALL BAKER LAST OF WEEK

Will Be Given Opportunity to Amplify Statement of War Preparation

STILL INSIST THAT WAR CABINET BE INSTALLED

Chamberlain Promises to Name Officers Charged With Neglecting Sack

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Jan. 29.—Secretary Baker soon will have an opportunity to amplify his statement of America's war preparation, given yesterday to the senate military committee, in which he announced that more than a half million men will be in France early this year, and a million more would be ready before the end of the year.

Recall of Secretary Baker for cross-examination before the end of the week was decided upon today by the committee. Howard E. Coffin, head of the aircraft board, said his assistants, were called before the committee today to tell, in executive session, of the Liberty motor and other aviation affairs.

Although impressed with Secretary Baker's disclosures of the magnitude of military operations the senate committee intends to pursue its demands for centralization of war authority through the war cabinet and a munitions director.

Senator Chamberlain said today, however, that the war cabinet bill will be resubmitted to the committee for another vote before being reported to the senate. He said this course would be taken because he did not wish it to appear that a majority of the committee favoring the war reorganization were trying to "railroad" their legislation through although the bill was ordered reported at a previous meeting from which, however, several senators opposing the bill were absent.

In reply to Secretary Baker's request for the identities of persons named in letters produced by Senator Chamberlain charging army officers with neglect of the sick and dead, Mr. Chamberlain said today he probably would make the names public and also furnish them to Secretary Baker for investigation.

PREPARE FOR FLOODS OVER THE COUNTRY

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Jan. 29.—Instructions were sent out today by the railroad administration to local railroad authorities to prepare to fight floods expected later this week if thawing weather develops.

Streams are out of their banks in West Virginia and Kentucky and with temperatures rising today railroad administration officials feared a rapid extension of the melting area. Snow covers the whole eastern part of the country to an average depth of six inches. The bottom layer has once melted and then frozen, forming a smooth surface from which water of the melting upper layers will flow rapidly if the thaw is sudden.

In preparation for serious consequences workmen will be transferred soon from shoveling snow to protecting bridges, it was said.

Officials said today they will not lift the embargo on eastern lines today but would consider removing restrictions gradually in a day or two.

CURTAIL PASSPORTS OF AMERICAN WOMEN

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Jan. 29.—Passport regulations of the state department now permit only those American women to go abroad whose services are imperatively required by some recognized relief agency. The explanation as announced today was that the presence of large numbers of free lance workers was beginning to prove an amount of embarrassment to warring countries. Passports are being denied also to the wives of American officers in France.

OBSERVE MCKINLEY ANNIVERSARY.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, Jan. 29.—Today the seventy-fifth anniversary of the birth of President William McKinley was observed in the state capital by the wearing of a small American flag in the lapel of the coat. The McKinley Carnation League of America suggested that the flag instead of the carnation which was McKinley's favorite flower, be worn in his honor.

ATTACK MADE ON INVADERS BY ITALIANS

(Continued from Page 1.) gates to the conference, was going to Stockholm, London, and Paris, to lay before the entente governments the progress of the peace pour parlers.

Another circumstantial report from Petrograd was to the effect that Trotsky had returned to the Brest-Litovsk peace conference armed with a vote of confidence by the congress of the workmen and soldiers' delegates in the attitude of the Russian delegation. The congress, however, refused to declare flatly against the policy of a separate peace detaching a motion in that sense offered by the minority elements and drawing from Trotsky the statement that he would not guarantee to sign such a peace.

London was raided last night by German airplanes, not more than half a dozen reaching the city, however, out of some 15 machines which made the attempt. One raider was brought down in flames from a height of 10,000 feet, its three occupants being burned to death.

Unrest among the working people of Germany has not yet quieted, nor has the political conflict between the Pan-Germans and the non-militarists lessened appreciably. Concern over the internal security of the empire appears in the message sent by Emperor William in answer to birthday congratulations from the reichstag.

To President Kaempf, of the reichstag, the emperor expressed his "ardent daily wish" that the German people may "preserve their union until the final victory of our arms."

The emperor declared that he enters upon a "serious and decisive year." The reichstag, however, is reported to have refused to vote confidence in the government, mainly through socialist opposition, and Chancellor von Hertling may appear before it again in a few days to discuss the question of a general strike in Berlin on Monday are declared to have failed, according to a message, reaching Amsterdam. Leaflets calling for such a strike were distributed widely in the German capital, but it is said that workmen in only a few factories were idle. Lack of central direction of the strike agitation is reported to have brought about the strike.

A revolt in Finland is reported to have been backed by the Bolsheviks in Petrograd, which also has severed diplomatic relations, generally the first act leading to war, with Rumania. Ultimatum on Rumania by their refusal to meet these probably caused the entire government to act. General Stecherhatcheff, who recently was reported to have taken command of the Ukrainian army has been declared an outlaw by the Bolsheviks.

Most of the disorder in Finland appears to be in the eastern provinces nearest Petrograd. The revolutionists generally are members of the Red Guard. Bolshevik troops have gone to the aid of the Finnish Red Guards and additional aid has been promised from Petrograd.

On the fighting fronts in France and Italy nothing has occurred to break almost the daily routine of scattered raids and artillery bombardments. The representatives of

Patriotism and Saving

Go hand in hand. When the Nation is spending money on a scale never before imagined, it is the patriotic duty of every one to save all he can to increase the financial resources of the country.

When business activities are shifting to a war basis, it is the duty of every man to protect his future by UNUSUAL SAVING. Merely to buy Liberty Bonds is not enough.

GOES TO EUROPE IN Y. M. C. A. WORK

Arthur M. Harris.

This is a new portrait of Arthur M. Harris, of Harris, Forbes & Co., New York bankers, who is on his way to France to direct activities of the Y. M. C. A.

Italy and Great Britain on the supreme war council have arrived in Paris where the American and French members already are, for the plenary sitting of the council.

German airplanes again have attempted to raid London, but with little success. Only four machines are believed to have penetrated the defenses and one raider was brought down in Essex. The usual tactics were followed by the Germans who tried to attack London in relay, the duration of the raid being five hours.

Leon Trotsky, Bolshevik foreign minister, has left Petrograd for Brest-Litovsk to resume negotiations for peace with the Germans, according to advices from the Russian capital. All the acts of the Bolshevik peace delegates have been approved by the congress of the councils of workmen and soldiers' delegates, which ordered the government to continue the peace parleys. An effort by the minority parties to have the congress declare flatly against a separate peace was defeated. During the debate on this question Trotsky declared he could not give a guarantee that he would not sign a separate peace.

FIRE DESTROYS ALCOHOL PLANT AT MARQUETTE

(Associated Press Telegram) Marquette, Mich., Jan. 29.—An explosion followed by fire early today, which destroyed the alcohol refining plant, the primary building and a series of condensers of the Pioneer Iron Furnace company, owned by the Cleveland Cliffs Iron company of Cleveland, O., caused a damage estimated at $100,000.

First reports of the explosion said a number of lives had been lost, but at daylight it was believed there was no loss of life and that only two men had been injured, although the casualty list cannot be definitely determined until the company rolls have been checked over.

The police believe that the explosion was caused by an incendiary but the officials of the company declined to express an opinion as to the cause.

The first blast rocked the city to its foundations, windows in business buildings and in stores in the central section, more than half a mile distant from the plant, being shattered by the explosion.

The cause of the explosion is not known as yet. The part of the plant destroyed is engaged in the manufacture of alcohol and the ground chemicals for powerful explosives for the American and allied governments.

Company officials said there was no loss of life in the explosion. Owing to low water pressure and a temperature of 10 degrees below zero, firemen had a difficult time fighting the flames.

That there was no serious loss of life probably was due to the fact that most of the employees in the alcohol refining plant were in the boiler room of the furnace.

The secretary's outline of the army's preparations revealing many hitherto carefully-guarded military secrets, given yesterday to the senate military committee to answer to criticisms of the war department, made a profound impression on committee members. Chairman Chamberlain, who has been the department's chief critic, admitted this before Secretary Baker left the stand. The chairman proposed that Mr. Baker be given a rest and there was no attempt at cross-examination, although when the committee today resumed its investigation of various phases of the army's activities it was understood the secretary would be recalled for further examination later.

While many things disclosed by Secretary Baker to show the progress the army had made, apparently surprised the committee, members seemed amazed when told that men in the 32 national guard and national army camps were ready to go abroad today if needed.

The secretary's statement that the United States "will have 500,000 men in France early in 1918, and a million and a half ready to ship to France in 1918," caused many to express the opinion that the war plans contemplated the completion of the training of those called in the new draft before the year ended.

The committee was told that it would be a tragical thing if the impression which had gone out that the war department had broken down was allowed to remain unchallenged.

CAUSES HEAVY BURDEN TO THE MAIL SERVICE

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, Jan. 29.—Freight embargoes and weather delays to freight shipments have thrown a heavy new burden on the mail service by adding thousands of tons to the parcel post. Otto P. Praeger, second assistant postmaster general, said today that steamers were being used for the first time in carrying parcel post in an effort to forestall congestion, and that various changes in practice have been made to speed up the service.

Owing to missed connections and weather conditions, deliveries now are from 12 to 24 hours later from New York and Chicago, and from 24 to 48 hours to the Pacific coast. Delays to southbound shipments are less and due more to shortage of cars, which have been commandeered for military use, than to ice and snow.

Parcel post business in December was 1,173,000 sacks more than in the same month of 1916.

IMPROVEMENT IN TRAFFIC IS SLOW

(Associated Press Telegram) Philadelphia, Jan. 29.—Although traffic conditions on the railroads were much improved today drifts and packed snow in many parts of the state were responsible for delays of from eight to 18 hours in the arrivals of trains from the west.

Attempts were made to resume freight service after more than 5000 men had worked to clear tracks and switches, but it proved difficult, according to railroad officials to free cars from the snowdrifts up-state.

Electric car traffic throughout the state is still badly crippled.

MANY HOURS LATE

(Associated Press Telegram) Chicago, Jan. 29.—New York passenger trains are limping into Chicago 10 hours late owing to the storm, and those of the Pennsylvania seven hours behind schedule, according to the superintendent of railway mail service at the postoffice.

TRIAL BEGINS ON TREASON CHARGE

(Associated Press Telegram) Paris, Monday, Jan. 28.—The French senate, organized as a high court of justice and which today began the trial of Louis J. May, former minister of the interior, on charges of high treason, after a long secret session announced that it had rejected the plea that it was not competent to act in the case.

Antonio Debose, president of the senate, declared that the demand of the two civilians that they be made parties to the case was not acceptable to the court. He announced that a supplementary investigation would be necessary.

Uncle Sam Wants More Agents For War Savings Stamps In This County

More than 300 stations for the sale of Thrift Stamps and War Savings Stamps have been established in Newark and Licking county. The Treasury Department at Washington asks that one station be established for every 100 inhabitants, which means 610 in Licking county.

There is no red tape connected with this agency work. All that is necessary is for one to agree to keep on hand continuously a small supply of stamps to sell to the public. A professional man or a merchant operating a small store need not buy more than $5 or $10 worth of stamps at a time, as he can "turn the money over" and replenish the supply from day to day through the postman.

Every manufacturer, every merchant, every professional man or woman, storekeepers, hotels, insurance men, teachers and others are invited to help make the war savings campaign a success by becoming agents for War Savings Stamps. Soon the Licking county list will be published. It already numbers more than 300. Those who have not as yet advised the County War Savings Committee of their willingness to perform this little patriotic service are invited to do so immediately. The proprietor of a small shop purchased $2 worth of the stamps last Friday and has since turned the money over so as to make his total sales amount to $50 already. One member of the West Newark Fire Department is selling $10 worth of Thrift Stamps every day. Practically all of the big stores, many smaller stores and many of the manufacturers are now selling Thrift and War Savings Stamps. More agents are needed in every part of Licking county. Those who are willing to serve will please address

The Licking County War Savings Committee

NEWARK, OHIO.

Red, White and Blue "For Sale" cards, lithographs and literature on the war savings campaign will be furnished upon application to C. H. Spencer. It is important for every one who is selling stamps to notify the county committee, as an effort will be made to have the published list of agents complete and accurate.

Licking county's share for 1918 is $1,236,180. That means about $4000 a day and is $20 for every man, woman and child in the county.

TESTIMONY DEVELOPS PACKERS ATTEMPTED TO STIFLE COMPETITION

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, Jan. 29.—Charles H. May, manager of the Farmers County Operative Association, and independent and co-operative packing plans of the federal trade commission's hearings that the five big packers took turns in cutting prices on beef and pork in the co-operative association territory, so that the latter's sales were reduced greatly. He said he knew from years of experience with Swift and Company that the packers' prices were below the cost of production.

"This happened some years ago?" asked Francis J. Henry, the commission's counsel.

"It happened this year also, three weeks ago," May replied.

"How is that? Aren't they being regulated by the food administration?"

"I haven't seen it," replied May. "Since the commission's investigation began, May testified, it has been impossible to obtain invoices of sales by the big packers, although the commission obtained a number of peremptory orders. May testified also that grades now were being omitted from invoices. Attorney Henry brought that out with the announced intention of showing that the packers took steps to "cover up" their alleged efforts to stifle competition by making it difficult to compare prices with those of the independents.

Numerous informal complaints that cream and cheese factories of Wisconsin are being put out of business by condenser establishments by the big packers have been filed with the commission and are being investigated.

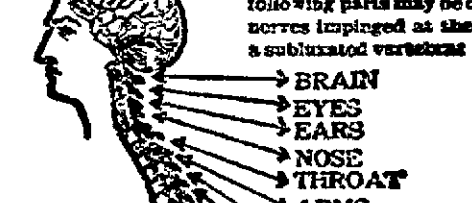

Difficulties which the independent packers find in marketing their products were described by Mr. May. He said this was particularly true of selling hides, due he believed, to interests which the packers hold in many tanneries. He declared the stock of hides on hand in the United States at the present time is the largest in history but buyers are very few. The market and prices are very low. He was unable to explain why the cost of shoes and other leather goods should be abnormally high. The premium commanded by the "so-called packer hides" over "country hides" attracted the interest of the commission. It was brought out that country hides are those not taken off animals by the big packers. Government specifications call for the use of packer hides in all government contracts which was said to be the reason for the difference in price between the two classes of skins. Mr. May said there was no difference in quality.

"There is no doubt in your mind when a country hide comes into the hands of the packers that it is sold as a packer hide?" suggested Commissioner Mordock.

"None whatever," Mr. May replied.

"Nor in the mind of anybody else," replied Mr. Mordock, who is in charge of the commission's investigation into the hide and leather industry.

NEW YORKER MADE MUNITIONS BUYER

Edward R. Stettinius.

Secretary of War Baker has just appointed Edward R. Stettinius of New York surveyor general of all army purchases, a post equivalent to munitions minister. As a member of the firm of Morgan & Co., Stettinius bought supplies for the allies at the rate of $1,000,000 worth a day.

WAR COUNCIL CONVENES TODAY AT VERSAILLES

RED BLOODED MEN FIGHTERS

THEY RULE THE WORLD

Red blooded men are born leaders in every walk of life and fight intelligently with both brain and muscles. They are always live wires, smiling and full of ginger; keen, alert on their toes and ready for anything that comes their way. Work is a pleasure and they land on top every time.

You will not find a strong successful man or woman trying to plug along with poor health or weak nerves. They know better they are wise and see to it that their blood has plenty of good, fresh iron and their nerves at all times loaded with Phosphates—the nerve food.

A leading doctor says: "Show me a strong, healthy successful man or woman and you can bank on it every time; their bodies are just loaded with iron and Phosphates." Another prominent physician says: "There is no need of anyone going through life sickly, miserable, played out, fagged and nervous when Phosphated Iron will always put energy and vigor in the body, mind and nerves." This same doctor also said: "With the iron you can fight life's battle at any stage of the game and be a winner at every turn."

Mr. Run-Dowma man or woman in any stage of life. If you feel all in, your nerves are all shot, and life seems like one continual drag and drudgery from day to day, get next to yourself, wake up, take a brace. Lay in a supply of Phosphated Iron and take a new lease on life. You will once again feel like a live one and face the world with the smile that wins. Are you game?

To insure physicians and their patients receiving the genuine Phosphated Iron it has been put up in capsules only, so do not allow dealers to give you tablets or pills. Insist on capsules.

EXPERIENCE OF A NEWARK NURSE NOW IN FRANCE

Miss Florence M. Hershberger, daughter of Mr. J. B. Hershberger, of West Church street, who is a nurse in the French army, writes from Emma Kammerer of this city as follows:

Field Hospital, No. 16,
France, Dec. 31, 1917.
Dear Emma:
So many thanks for your letter. It was indeed a pleasant surprise. Let me tell you the only thing I have over here, but you would have to be with us to know how much they are appreciated. As you say, I was from the very lap of luxury into this and the contrast is great. I never had such an appetite with so little to eat. You know I am a great eater. But our men are just about catfish. Nations are cut and cut until very little is left. But I have a great deal of even a treat. The other two meals we have "hard" work. Three nurses in the kitchen, and now three of our class are gone, the thought makes me very sad.

Kindest remembrance to your mother and sisters. I know you all are working hard. The people at home are doing just as much. I do not praise my mail service too much. I am very happy in giving it.

Affectionately,
FLORENCE.

GRANVILLE

(Special to The Advocate.)

Granville, Jan. 28.—The buildings of Denison University are an all-around central system, located in the basement of Cleveland Hall. The fuel used is natural gas obtained from a private well and thus far it has sufficed for all needs without having to draw for the supply of other patrons.

The next concert on the music course here will be given by Arthur Shattuck, a world-famous pianist, who is the director of the Denison University orchestra. The concert will be given on Tuesday, February 5th. Not only is Shattuck a fine pianist, he is a fine American. His entire receipts for this concert will be given to the Red Cross, and at the close of this tour he will give his services to the government.

With Miss Leila C. Brown as head of the organ department of Denison Conservatory the work has assumed a new importance and a new character. To hold a separate recital for organ pupils in the Baptist church last evening the program was well planned and every member received the warm appreciation it deserved. Those appearing were: Misses Cora Fleming, Mildred Jones, Edith Clark, Berenice Brown, Martha Sachs, Madeline, Edgerly Elizabeth Evans, Maud Potts, Mrs. Darrow, Mrs. Belford, William Vogel, Rowland Dowling, and Karl Criley.

Mrs. D. E. Hopkins again presided at the meeting of the Travelers' club Monday afternoon in the absence of the president, Mrs. Stephen C. Brown. The program was presented, to the goodly number present. Still in Central America, the travelers were interested in the report of "Public Health," as given by Miss Anna Rees in a well prepared paper. The report was on the timely topic of "Public Health," and she called upon Mrs. Odebrecht for the work of the junior league. Mrs. Odebrecht presented the tuberculosis phase. Miss Roe read several excerpts showing sanitary conditions in Central America, and Mrs. Owen with the cooperation of council, closed with a view of local conditions which should be greatly improved.

PROGRESS OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS IN PAST MONTH

Following is the report of the public schools of the city for the month ending January 25, compiled by Superintendent Wilson Hawkins:

Building	Enrollment	Attendance	Percentage
Central	446	198	91
Hartford	388	188	91
Woodside	382	149	91
Manolin	278	133	91

Varside	105	53	89
Texas	95	45	90
Franklin	27	15	92
Total	2476	1342	91
Last year	2540	1393	92
Total for all schools	722	425	96
Last year	722	398	95
This year	1198	1767	93
Last year	1218	1932	93

Notes and Comments.
This report shows that there are 12 pupils fewer in the schools this year than at the same time last year. The attendance and punctuality are remarkably good, considering the amount of sickness among pupils and the weather conditions. The following teachers deserve special mention for excellent attendance: Ada Sims, 96 per cent; Mattie Desch, 96 per cent; Ruth Fulmire, 95 per cent; Eunice Thomas, 95 per cent; Gerrie Kirby, 97 per cent; H. F. Moninger, 96 per cent; Mary A. Larson, 97 per cent; Rose Pugh, 96 per cent; Madge Lindsay, 96 per cent; Kate Egan, 95 per cent; Helmina Mohlenpach, 98 per cent; Bertha Crilly, 98 per cent; G. G. Winter, 98 per cent; Janet Jones, 97 per cent.

There were 47 school rooms that reported no tardiness at all during the month. This is remarkably good when we consider the severe weather conditions.

Teachers made 110 visits to the homes of children and 474 visits by parents and other friends made to the school. The Superintendent and his staff visited into the various school rooms of the city observing the work of teachers and the progress of the pupils.

That the schools are doing their part in war work is proven by the fact that 580 membership in the Red Cross were secured by pupils in December and that during the past two weeks, $7,374.75 worth of Thrift Stamps were purchased by pupils and teachers. In addition to this, the high school service flag was bought and 150 names representing the high school's contribution to the Government in men.

On Thursday afternoon, February 21, members in the city will have special exercises of a patriotic kind. The public is invited.

The schools wish to thank The Brilliant Furniture Company for the 15 framed pictures of a patriotic kind recently donated to the school buildings of the city.

IN INTEREST OF FISH AND GAME

Z. N. Vanatta has received word from N. E. Shaw, secretary of the state board of agriculture that a meeting in the interest of game and fish work will be held in the house of representatives in the capital building, Saturday afternoon, which will be particularly for game warden and in the evening a meeting will be held in the chapel, main building of Ohio State University.

E. A. Quarles, second vice president of the American Game Protective and Propagation Association will address both meetings and machine pictures and stereoscopic views to illustrate game breeding, control of vermin and other features of fish and game work. Other noted speakers will be present. Several from here expect to attend the meetings.

SECRETARY BAKER.

Those who read the detailed report of Secretary of War Baker's appearance before the senate committee in Washington yesterday, as telegraphed over the Associated Press wires, have no hesitancy in saying that Mr. Baker gave a very good account of himself.

Secretary Baker gave a comprehensive statement in reply to Senator Chamberlain's charge that the war department had "fallen down" and in a frank, conversational manner gave the senators a statement that told of the really great work that has been accomplished by the government.

It has been only a short time since Secretary Daniels was criticised, but the achievements of the navy have silenced his critics just as the accomplishment of the army will quiet the accusations against the war department when the great work of organization is completed. That there have been some mistakes Secretary Baker has not denied, but in creating and equipping an army of a million and a half men in a few months comparatively few errors have entered.

Secretary Baker is a man of strong mental attainments, unswerving character and integrity, and an indefatigable worker. Under his guidance the war department has accomplished a wonderful piece of work and unless we miss our estimate, time will fully vindicate the wisdom of Mr. Baker's course. President Wilson has implicit faith in Secretary Baker and there is no real evidence that his confidence has been misplaced. The unprejudiced reader of Mr. Baker's testimony cannot fail to be favorably impressed by what he said before the senate committee in Washington yesterday.

BUILDING MODERN ROADS.

In spite of the reaction against macadam-road construction, yet probably more money is still being put into this type of construction than into any other. But unless done in the most thorough way, with the closest attention to detail, it is good only for light traffic. Heavy trucking and fast running automobiles will break it down in a season.

The under-earth must be thoroughly rolled when wet until soft spots are packed down. If any weak spot is left, the crushed-stone will soon drop into it and cause holes. Side ditches and drains must be arranged to carry off moisture.

A firm form of rock must be chosen. Granite is too coarse, limestone too soft, though a small quantity of limestone is often mixed with harder rock and is useful in giving a cementitious quality. Trap-rock, diabase, basalt, and porphyry rocks are most favored. The crushed rock should be laid in a clean condition, so that the interstices will not be filled up by dirt that will wash down later. The rock should pack together into the smallest possible space.

The standard construction of macadam road requires four to eight inches of coarse rock for the base, and two to four inches smaller surfacing rock. The rolling must be very thorough. There is a tendency for the rolling to push the surface up into the form of waves, and some authorities urge rolling diagonally to overcome this. The road will hold only if the rock pieces which should be sharp, are pressed down so as to interlock mechanically with each other, thus constituting a solid fabric.

The standard binders outside of the bituminous materials, are fine stone screenings and water, sand and water, limestone screenings and water, and clay and water.

The question is asked: what has become of the old-timer who always used to work up several cords of wood in his backyard? Well, about now he is running down to the coal office twice a day to see why they haven't delivered that quarter of a ton.

It must be carefully remembered that the same men who are disappointed that we haven't a million men in France, were opposed about a year ago to increasing the army by 100,000 men.

These people who kick on the good, corn johnnycake that mother used to make, should try eating tinned bully beef while dodging shells in the trenches.

The Russian Bolshevik claim to be quite humane, as they kill people comfortably in their beds, instead of making them go out to fight in the trenches.

The worst cases of conflicting instructions must be the Germans who, under present conditions, are allowed to have four or five wives.

If the weather doesn't stop doing it, bit for the kaiser by tying up our railroads, we shall have to exclude it from this country.

Nothing can be done to the spies because they positively deny they are guilty, and, of course, they always tell the truth.

The man who gets that $25,000 from the head German spy of course was merely using it in farming.

1918 WAR FINANCING.

(Pittsburgh Gazette Times.)
In the House of Commons yesterday the English chancellor of the exchequer made the statement that the daily average expenditures of the British government amounted to $37,585,000 for the seven weeks ended January 19. These figures forecast the magnitude of the 1918 war financing, which will fall mainly upon England and the United States. The manner in which this will be accomplished is now engaging the serious attention of the financiers of the respective nations. Thus far the cost of the war to Great Britain (which includes enormous advances to Allies) has approximated $31,000,000, and nearly every means adopted for raising war funds has played part in producing this unprecedented sum. The plan adopted for raising 1918 requirements by our chief ally will be of much interest to our own treasury officials. A guaranteed statement of the English chancellor concerning impending loans has been construed as meaning that Great Britain may adopt a continental device of attaching a lottery feature to subscriptions in order to make them more attractive. This will be the last resort of our government, we may be sure.

Walter S. Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo has denied rumors concerning the date and amount of the next Liberty Loan, there are unmistakable signs that new borrowing in some form will be announced officially within the ensuing two months. With the 4 per cent bonds of the second loan quoted in the open market at a considerable discount, the impression prevails that the next loan must be put out at a higher rate than 4 per cent in order to achieve the desired success. A New York banker, however, has suggested a plan under which it would be possible to continue to finance our war needs on a 4 per cent basis, which by the way is much cheaper than any foreign nation has found possible. His suggestion is that the government issue five-year notes at 4 per cent, with the provision that these notes, at the option of the holder, be convertible at maturity into one-term government bonds bearing the same rate.

The theory is that before the end of five years peace will be resumed and governments will cease to issue war loans. In that event a United States government bond bearing 4 per cent would command a premium and the great bulk of outstanding notes would be exchanged for bonds.

If this plan should be adopted, the government would be merely taking a leaf out of the book of experience of some of our most successful corporations, which have issued both bonds and notes exchangeable at the end of a specified period into another form of security. In effect it puts the guessing of future financial conditions up to the investor, but expensively proved that it was equally disadvantageous to the borrower. It would greatly strengthen our national prestige after the war if the United States were able to meet its war necessities at a rate not to exceed 4 per cent.

CHARITY AND RESEARCH WORK.

(Ohio State Journal.)
The Red Cross has got itself into a controversy out East. It has been prevailed upon to give $100,000 of its money to a medical society for research work. Now it seems that a feature of this research work is vivisection, which so many people oppose, and many of these opponents have given liberally to the Red Cross fund. Without discussing the object of this gift, it has very naturally raised a tempest that the Red Cross should have escaped. It had no right to spend its money in research work, which is only experimental, and is not within the Red Cross province. That belongs to the government or to our educational equipments, and not to our charities, especially when it evokes problems of conscience, as it does in the case of vivisection. The very question whether it is right or not is a reason for not having anything to do with it, and we have no doubt the Red Cross will reach that decision after this experience.

THE BELGIAN MINISTER.

(Providence Minister.)
Minister Panaretoff will be credited with only ordinary shrewdness in preserving an outward attitude of representing his own country, strictly. His master's bidding is the voice of Berlin, not Sofia, but he cannot do his master's work, his presence among us cannot be of any service to Germany unless he is careful to impress on us that Bulgaria, in fact, as she is technically, is a neutral and friendly nation so far as the United States is concerned.

A newspaper interview which the Bulgarian minister gave out a few weeks ago was an example of his skill in promoting German propaganda in superficially inoffensive language—proof enough that he is ready to seize every opportunity to "engage in the pernicious form of plotting of which Germany is a past master." He has sought insidiously to diminish our admiration for our hapless ally Serbia, and has made insinuating reflections against our other allies, Italy and Roumania.

Such utterances, trivial as they may seem, are plainly designed to dampen the enthusiasm of our soldiers and the American people for nations on whose side we are fighting. They serve to emphasize the danger of a situation which permits Panaretoff, titular representative of a nation which is actually an enemy, to pose as a neutral member of the diplomatic corps at Washington. Bulgaria has deliberately chosen to become a partner of the criminal central powers, hoping to attain her own selfish ends at the expense of her neighbors, our allies in that corner of the battle ground. To cause a Bolshevik movement in the United States, creating its debilitating effects if not a physical revolution, is the present objective of German propaganda, and the Bulgarian minister is in a strategic position to promote it. Are we going to see such men as Panaretoff acting as accredited agents of Germany to our government? Or, are we going to "wake up and justify the great faith in our sagacity, in our forthright, in our astuteness, which our allies across the seas have in us?"

BUSINESS NOT POLITICS.

(Indianapolis News.)
Senator Stone, of Missouri, delivered a speech in the senate assailing certain Republican leaders. There will, of course, be replies, and the result will be "the most spirited political discussion congress has seen since the United States went to war." There is no reason for war on any one but the kaiser. The country is not not interested in political debates. What it wants is a vigorous and businesslike prosecution of the war. If politics is allowed to intrude, our war management will be bound to suffer. For there could be no reform proposed, no change of method suggested that would not be favored or opposed on purely partisan grounds. The effort would be, not to get forward with the war, but to make votes.

The senate is at the present time wisely and patriotically endeavoring to strengthen the weak places in our war machinery. For it to turn from this work to a political debate would be greatly to weaken its influence with the people. In such a country as this it is impossible wholly to keep politics out of war or war out of politics. But we have been so successful thus far that it would be a great pity to give rein to the partisan spirit now. Nothing whatever would be gained by this course, and much might be lost.

Everything possible should be done to maintain unity and good feeling. Men of all parties in congress should work together in a friendly spirit to make this nation as formidable as possible in the prosecution of the war. Nothing would please the German propagandists better than a heated political discussion. The country is not greatly interested in Senator Stone's opinion of the Republican leaders, or in his views generally. But it is deeply interested in bringing the war to a successful conclusion at the earliest possible date. There is no call for a "spirited political discussion" in congress. The patriotic harmony that has thus far prevailed ought not to be broken.

PSYCHOLOGICAL.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
Many of one's troubles are merely psychological. Very high authority might be quoted to this effect. If you are unhappy or uncomfortable, perhaps it is because your imagination is overactive.

Imagine, then, that this is a mid-August day. Last night you let the sprinkler run on your front lawn till bed time and this morning the grass looks as brown and dead for the first time. That was war garden of yours droops disconsolate. How can tomatoes grow or ripen in such weather as this?

You drag yourself to the office; already the sun is blistering hot; no sign of rain; no slightest hint of a cooling breeze. Some thug closed a couple of the car windows on the way down and the car was suffocating. Oh, for the good old days of open cars! You carry your coat on your arm. By noon your collar is melted. Every few minutes you wipe the perspiration from your glasses. Wow! Look at that clock. One hundred and two on the shady side! And it is four hours yet before you can leave the office and head for a cold tub.

Such weather is enough to melt the granite blocks in the street as it is already melting the asphalt. The sidewalks feel hot through the soles of your shoes. You envy the thousands who sleep mightily in the parks.

"Continued fair," nonchalantly announces the weather bureau. How comfortable it will be next January! There, now; you feel better already. So many of one's troubles are merely psychological.

Spirit of the Press

Changing Dictators.
When Bolshevik sailors locked the doors of the Constituent Assembly and refused its members admittance, the world realized that Russia had made little progress toward representative government. Nicholas, in his most autocratic moments, never equalled this action of Lenin. The Bolshevik leader evidently would endow a parliamentary body with the initiative and discretion of a rubber stamp. Russia has but changed dictators. And the later dictator has as justification for his assumption of power only that he has substituted industrial chaos and repudiation of Russia's Allies for the semblance of law and order and international faith that characterized the Czar's flaccid government. —Cincinnati Times-Star.

Hold Your Liberty Bonds.
Every respectable dealer in bonds will heartily approve of Secretary McAdoo's warning to holders of Liberty Bonds to refrain from listening to those who would persuade them to exchange for other securities—or securities—ostensibly bearing a higher rate of interest. As the secretary says some of the so-called securities offered by these unpatriotic and unscrupulous peddlers are absolutely worthless. The holder of a Liberty Bond has the safest and best security in the world and should not part with it in any circumstances, unless compelled by actual need to convert it into cash. —New York Herald.

Ships That Cannot Be Moved.
To win this war we have got to keep ships moving continuously across the Atlantic. The movement is hampered, and seriously hampered, by the policy adopted to concentrate everything in the port of New York. The government seems to be willing to spend millions upon millions to increase the congestion on the Hudson. What is the use in building ships if we cannot utilize them? There is an answer to the problem and an easy one—make use of the facilities going to waste at Philadelphia and at other ports. —Philadelphia Inquirer.

FUEL ADMINISTRATION NOTES.
Many employers throughout the Nation announced their intention of paying their men for the time lost by them on account of the curtailment order of the Fuel Administration, and Dr. Garfield asked the various State administrators to express to them his appreciation of their action.

The international convention of the United Mine Workers, in session at Indianapolis, ratified by an overwhelming vote the Washington wage agreement.

Representatives of the Fuel Administration have been located at every Atlantic seaboard of importance to co-operate with the railway and trans-Atlantic steamship lines in getting coal into the bunkers of ships.

Many ships require to be bunkered before they can take on their cargoes. No effort is being spared to bunker, load, and discharge ships carrying military freight abroad.

The State War Board Today Says

Wednesday is wheatless day. Not one of the Allies are today eating white bread. With them not one day in a week, or one wheatless meal a day but every day and every meal is wheatless.

Here in the United States, we are at present, asked to have one whole wheatless day each week and one wheatless meal each day, preferably the evening meal.

Here is a suggested program for the wheatless day:

Breakfast.
Sliced Bananas Top Milk
Cornmeal Griddle Cakes
Corn Syrup
Coffee Milk for Children
Lunch or Supper
Casserole of Hominy, Tomatoes and Cheese
Stewed Prune Scotch Francies
Dinner
Cold Beef Tongue, Belgian Baked Potatoes
Cranberry Jelly
Mashed Rutabaga, Tapioca Pudding

SOME EXEMPTION NOTES.
Attention of the public is called to certain interpretations of the fuel curtailment order regulating the use of fuel on Mondays which local fuel administrators will be called upon to enforce.

The fact that one or more offices in a building are exempt does not permit other offices to be heated. Nonexempt offices should not be heated and elevator service should not be used to carry people to non-exempt offices.

Wholesale stores and warehouses may be open without heat for the unloading of freight. Wholesale and retail stores selling food may remain open if necessary for doing so appears to the local fuel administrator. Such stores shall sell nothing but food on Monday.

News stands, cigar and stationery stores may remain open only for the purpose of selling newspapers and periodicals.

Drug stores may sell drugs, medical supplies, and newspapers only. Stands in hotels and other public buildings are requested to sell nothing but newspapers and periodicals.

Theatres, movie-picture houses, bowling alleys, billiard rooms, private or public dance halls, or any other place of public amusement operating Monday night, may remain open after midnight until their usual closing hour.

The spirit of the curtailment regulation is that the sale of liquor, everywhere, shall be discontinued on Monday.

All stores selling fuel may remain open on Monday for the purpose of selling fuel only.

Coal mines, together with machine shops and foundries in the coal and oil fields making mine equipment and supplies and repairs of same, and plants making mining explosives may operate on Monday.

Local administrators have authority to permit any activity on Monday which is necessary for human health in any way and to cover local conditions in a way which could not be covered in a general ruling.

State fuel administrators are authorized to make such exceptions as are necessary to prevent serious damage to plant or product.

The Emporia, Kan., Gazette says even the kaiser's best friends in Congress are willing to declare war on Turkey and Bulgaria. Yes, because the Bulgarian and Turkish vote isn't important. —New Orleans States.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Co-Respondent."
No more absorbing picture of life as lived in New York and New England has ever been projected on any screen than that which comes to the Auditorium theatre tomorrow, when will occur the premiere of the New York success, "The Co-Respondent," the Ralph W. Ince production which Jewel Productions, Inc., has the honor of presenting with magnetic Elaine Hammerstein in the title role. It is a story wherein a young and very beautiful girl is lured to a small town hotel and under the guise of a mock ceremony is almost linked to a perfidious New York millionaire whose wife afterwards sues him for divorce on the evidence obtainly strange, the following letter received by Jules Eckert Goodman, author of "The Man Who Came Back," which comes to Auditorium on Thursday evening, January 31st, speaks for itself.

October 9, 1916.
Mr. Jules E. Goodman, care The Playhouse Theatre, New York City.
Dear Sir:—No doubt you are the recipient of a great many letters, telling you of how the writers have enjoyed and appreciated your play, "The Man Who Came Back," and I guess a great many find their way to the trash basket.
I, also, am writing to tell you of my appreciation, but with a different motive. I, like your hero, come from a tained when the couple is trapped in the small town hotel from which the girl escapes. A reporter on a metropolitan daily where she has her own column, the girl year later faces a hard choice when the managing editor, the man she has grown to love, sends her out to find out the name of the co-respondent in the famous Van Kreef divorce case and she learns that the name is none other than her own. How she tells the man to save his paper from a libel suit and his own career from an abrupt end and how she in the end triumphs, forms one of the most absorbingly interesting stories ever screened.

"The Man Who Came Back," Showing that truth and fiction may good wealthy family, the — of fame, and am in the same position that you place your young man, fighting my way back into my home foot by foot.

Strange to say that I have covered the exact route as in your play, making a three years' trip in all. I have been home about two months and am working at a position that I dislike, but it's the only thing that I can get to do and I don't mind the point of quitting when I saw your play.
It's all different now. You have put new life into me and I am going to try to make a success of it. I don't want you to know and feel that it's my duty to write you, that you have been of so much help to me. I can't thank you enough. I can sympathize with your hero in every respect, especially when he hears the call of New York and the old life. God, I can remember when I was in Japan, wondering how I could get back, having money. I worked my way to Honolulu on a boat and when I landed there, I was like him, dreaming of New York and all that it stands for.

Only my flight was harder than his, as I went down to the depths alone and had to fight my way back without any help whatsoever. I am living at the above address at present and if you care to drop me a line you can reach me there. Again let me thank you for what you have done for me. I never will forget you or your play.
Very sincerely,
It will be seen at this letter that it was written on October 9, 1916, one month after "The Man Who Came Back" started its record-breaking run, which it was not to break for exactly one year later.

"Over Here."
You want to see the sort of conditions under which our boys will live while at the army cantonment in preparation for joining in the big smash across the sea. You want to see the speed, force and energy put into the construction of these cantonments. So you will want to see "Over Here" at the Auditorium Theatre, Friday and Saturday, as "Over Here" is an interesting and speedy detail of the construction of one of the many cantonments on the front lines of the United States from coast to coast.
The particular cantonment shown in this play is the one located at Little Rock, Ark. This cantonment was completed on September 1st, ready to receive the thousands of soldiers assigned to it. You are not surprised that it was completed on time when you see the speed and energy of the men, the tons of materials, the hundreds of machines put into construction.

Walsh Thrills Audience.
George Walsh, the Wm. Fox star, made a big hit recently with the audience at the Academy of Music in New York, where his picture of "This is the Life" was being shown. George came to make a record, but because of an accident to his machine he was delayed. He arrived at the theatre just as the manager was saying:

"Mr. George Walsh was to have appeared here tonight, ladies and gentlemen, but something has happened to him, and I fear I will have to disappoint you. I know he left his home for this theatre but nothing has happened to him. I know he will be just as sorry."
But at that moment George, who had come through the machine, stepped out, almost bowing over the ticket taker in his rapid rush to keep his promise, yelled out from the back of the theatre:

"Wait a minute, I'm here."
And he sprang down the aisle and made one long leap.
He landed safely behind the footlights but he had a narrow escape, missing the stage by only a fraction of an inch.
Walsh comes to the Auditorium, Sunday.

GRAND.
Charles Ray. "Clothes" promises to be the new dance craze as done by Charles Ray in the roof garden scene of the new Triangle play, "The Clothes," written by Monte A. Katterjohn and produced under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince, which will be shown at the Grand Theatre Wednesday. To meet the popularity of the play, which has brought limited fame on Broadway in three days and three nights is the dizzying sensation that the audience will experience. He becomes a celebrity of lobster square, largely by virtue of his eccentric dress and his ability to make a man dance. The most spectacular scene of this Ince production is the New York roof garden with its runway over the heads of the audience, lighted tables, surrounded by ultra fashionable women and their male companions, and a jazz band playing the latest music to which Ray and his much press agent "billion-dollar-beauties" clothe about the stage. After their performance the guests also try the "hop" on the cleared floor space.
The gawky country boy, who was turned from a state of the world's father, earns enough money to save this same father from financial disaster and to gain controlling stock in the village bank. Margie, the girl who is Ray's country sweetheart. Others in the cast are Thomas Guise, Charles French and Lydia Knott.

Tomorrow and Thursday.
Madge Evans, the world's middle star, and Henry Hull, the famous stage star, are both seen in the newest World-Picture Brady-Made, "The Volunteer." The Alhambra is fortunate in being able to show its many patrons tomorrow and Thursday.
The picture is a very unique offering, a different sort of a motion picture entirely. The story starts in the studio of World-Pictures where the stars are seen working in various pictures and some very fascinating glimpses of the studio are given. Among the stars seen are Madge Evans, who is seen in a picture, and Henry Hull, who is seen in a picture. The picture is a very unique offering, a different sort of a motion picture entirely.

GOOD SCORES ARE BEING MADE IN STATE CONTEST

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cleveland, Jan. 29.—(Cleveland) bowlers took the leadership in the singles and doubles events yesterday in the state tournament, displacing Cincinnati in the two events. Harry Stieglmeier, veteran Cleveland bowler, with a score of 644 in the singles, took the lead from Harris and J. C. Cincinnati, who were tied for first place with a score of 604. Art Bluck of Cleveland, took second place in the singles with a score of 413.
Art Bluck and Joe Kuever took the lead in the doubles with a score of 1174. Taylor and Trope, Cleveland, took second place in the doubles with a score of 1165.

WRESTLING BOUTS AT MADISON SQUARE MAY DEVELOP A CHAMPION

New York, Jan. 29.—The results of two wrestling bouts, which are to go on tonight at the Madison Square Garden, are expected to open the way to some other similar contests in the near future which may establish a champion. The bouts are the result of a catch-can championship title held by the late Frank Gotch of Humboldt, Ia. To meet for the championship, a Beland, who was defeated by Gotch, will meet the final match of a heavyweight tournament here from "Strangler" Ed Lewis, last December, will meet John Jay, who was defeated by Gotch, when he was defeated by Sergeant Pat O'Keefe, former welterweight champion of Ireland. O'Keefe's victory came in the second round.

LOST CHAMPIONSHIP.
London, Jan. 29.—Bandman Blake lost the middleweight boxing championship of Great Britain at the National Sporting Club when he was defeated by Sergeant Pat O'Keefe, former welterweight champion of Ireland. O'Keefe's victory came in the second round.

JASCHA HEIFETZ ASTONISHES THE MUSICAL WORLD.
Jascha Heifetz has taken the New York musical world by storm. A lad of 17, this Russian violinist is considered among the greatest masters of the violin. His first four Victor Records, which were recently announced, have been received with the same enthusiastic welcome. In Schubert's "Ave Maria" he plays one of the most beautiful passages in the history of music. In Wieniawski's scherzo Tarantelle he gives us exquisite music in headlong flight, myriad notes flying from his fingers and wild, light bow. In the glittering pyrotechnics of Drigo's "Valse Bluettes" his art dazzles the eye. His playing is a combination of Dervishes' pictures the gyrating whirl of the dance, developing among weird visions of the East. Such extraordinary tone-pictures have seldom been presented for the delight of the musical public.

And this astonishing young genius does it all so easily—apparently without strain or effort. The boy's technique, no affectation—just the clean, sweet dreams of a boy shining through this heaven-born music. Critics declare he has everything a violinist and an artist needs to mount to the loftiest heights of musical perfection. Each of his Victor Records moreover, testifies to his marvelous wizardry in that wonderful tone that has made his every public appearance a tumultuous triumph.

LEGAL NOTICE.
In accordance with the resolution passed by the Board of Education of the City of Newark, Ohio, on January 15, 1918, sealed bids will be received by the City of Newark, Ohio, at the office of said clerk until 12:00 o'clock noon on February 29, 1918, for interest on the bonds of the City of Newark, Ohio, to the amount of $100,000.00, for a period of two years from March 1, 1918. Each bid must contain the full name of a bidder and be accompanied by a certified check on some solvent bank for $25.00, as a guarantee that it said bidder will accept the contract when entered into and its performance properly secured by good and sufficient bonds, or the deposit of bonds of the United States, State of Ohio, or County, Municipal, Township or School bonds, issued by the proper authority of the State of Ohio, in a sum not less than the sum deposited. CITY ASSISTS IN FUEL CONSERVATION KEEPS LIGHTS OUT
Public Service Director J. C. Wilson announced several days ago that a couple of car loads of coal had been secured through the state fuel administrator's office and Supt. Donald F. Stevens has been helping out in furnishing coal to the municipal plant, so that the department has had a sufficient amount of coal to operate.
For the past week or ten days there have been no street lights and it is very inconvenient to all persons compelled to be out after dark, especially to women, and the public square looks like a deserted and abandoned boom town after 10 o'clock in the evening.
Director Wilson announces that as long as the snow remains to reflect the light given by stars and moon he will endeavor to conserve fuel by keeping the street lights dark. The director would please a majority of Newark citizens if he would keep the lights burning a part of the night, especially to women, and the public square looks like a deserted and abandoned boom town after 10 o'clock in the evening.

CHIEF SHERIDAN RECOVERS A FORD TAKEN LAST MONTH
A Ford machine belonging to Frank Finkert of Fairfield, which was stolen December 8, 1917, from South Park place, has been recovered by Chief Finkert. The machine was recovered last week; after doing a little "detective" work, the chief visited a barn in Hazelwood avenue on Monday where he recovered the Ford machine. It had been placed there by Sewell G. Humphreys, 19, of 149 North Sixth street. Monday night the Ford machine was recovered by Chief Finkert. Jones, Gott and Coughlin of Humphreys' home and he was taken to the patrol station, and later he confessed to taking the machine to the grand jury in the sum of $300.

WILL DISPENSE WITH ANNUAL BAR BANQUET
A meeting of the Licking County Bar Association was held in the court room on Tuesday morning. A motion to dispense with the usual annual bar banquet this year was carried.
A story was told by one of the members of the Licking County Bar Association, called the attention of the members of the bar to the fact that a large number of law books belonging to the library have been taken from the library without the attorneys leaving the required receipts for the books, and that some of the books have been away from the library for some time. The members of the bar were requested to return any books which they may have in their libraries, and in the future, in all instances, to leave receipts when books are taken out.

the church. The monthly Brotherhood supper of the Second Presbyterian church will be given in the church Thursday night of this week
at six o'clock.

W. C. T. U. Notice.
The Frances Willard W. C. T. U.
will not meet tomorrow as was previously announced.

To Tour Florida.
Rev. and Mrs. Don D. Tullis and children will leave Monday for Jacksonville, Fla., where they will meet Mrs. Tullis' father, Mr. Luther.
With him they will tour Florida in an auto making Daytona, Fla.,
their headquarters. Rev. Mr. Tullis will be gone about three weeks, but Mrs. Tullis will remain for some time.

Arrives at Jacksonville.
Hubert Vail received a telegram from his brother, Donald Vail today stating that he had arrived at Jacksonville, Fla., from Chicago, and from first impressions was prepared to like the quartermaster's camp
where he will be stationed.

JANUARY 31ST
W. S. S. AT LONG'S

You are doing "your bit" and enjoy the satisfaction it brings you as a real American. Do it now—keep eternally at it and win the war at the least cost. A man "at the front" now is better than next year. A War Saving Certificate now costs less than next month or next year. Jan. 31 at Long's Hardware and Furniture
Store, where you can always buy W.
S. S., you can start a W. S. S. card free with a 25c purchase—not to every caller but to every customer purchasing 25c or more worth of merchandise or buy the stamp and get the merchandise free. Feb. 1st and after you can add a 25c stamp
free with each purchase of $2.50.
25c returned to you or 25c retained by the store may or may not buy a stamp but the stamp transaction is a positive guarantee. If you can not go "over there" send "your bit."

Recovering Nicely.
Mrs. W. D. Leitz of South Fourth street, who recently fell and broke her arm on the icy sidewalk, is resting more comfortably. Dr. H. H.
Postle is the attending physician.

Resigns Position.
Miss Beatrice Smoot who has been employed at the J. J. Carroll store has resigned her position with that company.

Arrives in France.
Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson of Logan avenue, received a cablegram from their son, Sergt. Ross C. Robinson, stating that he had arrived in France. He enlisted last September at Detroit in a motor truck company and sailed for France, Jan. 7.

At Camp Sheridan.
Gus Ross, who enlisted in the 132
Machine Gun Company, now stationed at Camp Sheridan, Montgomery, Ala., writes to Pete Bruzas of the Sparta, that his company has been broken up into two parts and his squad has been taken over by the Supply Company of the 146 infantry.
Private Ross was formerly employed at the Sparta.

An Important Notice.
Every merchant every manufacturer, every doctor, lawyer and dentist; every office or businessman and woman, should read the advertisement at the top of page two of this paper, headed "United States Wants More Agents." It is highly important to have 600 war savings stamp agencies established in this county by January 31. To act as an agent involves very little trouble and no expense, but it will help Licking county to make a success of the war savings campaign. Read the advertisement on page two today
and notify the war savings committee that you will do your part.

JURY PANEL COMPLETE
(Associated Press Telegram)
Cleveland, Jan. 29.—The jury panel in the trial of Mrs. Elsie Bass, 26, charged with first degree murder, was completed today. Mrs. Bass is charged with the murder of John Perko, nine year old neighbor boy, who died after drinking milk from a bottle in which it is charged the woman put poison to catch thieves who had been stealing milk from the porch of her home.

TO BE EXPECTED.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Jan. 29.—Charges that Germany is violating the terms of the Russian truce by withdrawing troops from the eastern front and transferring them to the western battle lines were made today by the war department.

ICE HOLDING AT EVANSVILLE.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Evansville, Ind., 29.—Ice in Green river broke today and gorges are being formed at several points according to news received here. Green river is rising rapidly and several boats are endangered. One of the most threatening gorges is above the lock
No. 3 at Rochester, Ky.
Ice on the Ohio still holds here and is about two feet thick. River men anticipate trouble when it breaks.

TWO DESERTERS MAY HAVE SOLD PLACES TO GERMAN SPIES

(Associated Press Telegram)
Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio,
Jan. 29.—William A. Gourly and Fred Hufford, both of Marietta, are being held in the guard house here pending investigation by federal officials, who are seeking to prove reports that the men, both deserters from the Rainbow division, sold or gave their places in the Overseas contingent to German spies. The men were arrested at their homes in Marietta and both admit that they deserted from the Rainbow division.
They were members of the old Seventh regiment, Ohio National Guard.
They deserted while the port embarkation to return home and that when they returned their regiment had sailed.

According to reports, the men are alleged to have given or sold their places in the regiment to German secret service agents. When they were arrested in Marietta, a cablegram sent to General Pershing telling of their arrest. General Pershing cabled back that both men were in their regiment. This had led officials to believe that German agents may hold their place, going under their names.
Hufford said he deserted in order to see his family, and Gourly said he was dissatisfied with the army service.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio,
Jan. 29.—Approximately 2300 enemy
alien selects here will be released very shortly at the discretion of the division commander, Brigadier General Frederick Perkins. Investigations are now being made in the cases of all the men. Most of them will be given their discharges from the national army, while others will be interned at detention camps in the south for the duration of the war. The order is the first definite announcement of a program on the part of the government as to what disposition is to be made of the thousands of enemy aliens all over the country, who have been inducted into the service of the United States.

The selects, who are of Austrian,
German, Hungarian, Turkish and Bulgarian extraction and most of them whom have never taken oaths
of their first naturalization papers,
have been the biggest problem military authorities have had to face since the draft army was called into service. They have gradually been weeded out of the line regiments
here, and sent to training companies in the 153rd depot brigade, although some have been used at the rearmount depot in the quartermaster's corps and at the base hospital.

They have had the same training as the native born selects, but it has been no secret all along that the men would never be in the firing line. Nearly 400 of the best officers here have spent all of their time with the enemy aliens, some of whom have been suspected of espionage and others who have been under surveil-llance. Some of them have made no secret of the fact that their entire sympathies lay with the Teutonic powers, although most of them professed willingness to fight for the United States.

Investigations are being made in all of the organizations as to the exact status of the aliens. It was said today at the division headquarters that the decision of the local draft boards as to the citizenship of the men would guide military authorities here in releasing the aliens. In the case of aliens who have lost their cards showing that they are legiti-mate enemy aliens the burden of proof will rest on the men, it was stated.

Those who are deemed most dangerous will be sent to the detention camp, to be held until the war is over. Others will be given their discharge and transportation to the localities which sent them here as selects, according to the present plans.
The release of these enemy aliens will make more room available for the thousands of new drafted men, who are to be sent here on and after Feb. 15, as the final increment of the first draft. It will also release the 400 officers to train selects, who will be called upon to actually go to the firing line in France.

It is anticipated that an appreciable percentage of the enemy aliens will have difficulty securing their release from service under the new ruling. When they came to camp officers say many of them professed allegiance to the United States, which they are now attempting to disavow.
Candidates in the officers training school are thanking their lucky stars
that their officers, some time ago, arranged to postpone the week in the trenches. The embryo officers were scheduled to have this week at a later date. Climatic conditions would make like unbearable for the men at present, officers say.

The trenches are filled with ice, snow and water. Instead of the week in the ditches, the candidates are getting their first taste of combat work
—patrolling and advance and rear guard work.

NEW SONG HIT

Love Ballad With Remarkably Odd
Music.

The latest New York hit is a soldier love song called "Wait for Your Honey-Boy," said to be one of the catchiest things yet written. Despite its insignificant title it possesses a remarkably haunting tune.

The song, which is also out for orchestra, is being danced as a one-step and fox-trot. Here is part of the chorus clipped from a copy just received:

Wait For Your Honey-Boy.

CHORUS By C. ARTHUR PERSHING.

Wait for your Honey-Boy, He'll wait for you,

Write to your Honey-Boy, He's feeling blue

In my dreams I hear you calling me, Tho'

I'm across the deep blue sea, Wait for your

Honey-Boy, He'll come back to you.

The entire song is written in only one octave, without high notes. Although just published a few days it is said to be the quickest hit on record.

NEW WHEAT FLOUR REGULATIONS ARE RECEIVED TODAY

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, Jan. 29.—Instructions to put into effect immediately the new regulations requiring the sale of 50 per cent other wheat substitutes with wheat flour have been sent to county food administration committees by Fred C. Croxton, Ohio food administrator.

If grocers do not have sufficient amounts of substitutes to combine with white flour sales, they must limit or suspend the sale of white flour. They are directed to obtain the substitutes as early as possible.
Substitutes permitted in the combination sale with flour are:
Cornmeal, cornstarch, corn flour,
hominy, corn grits, barley flour, potato flour, sweet potato flour, soy bean flour and feterita flour and meal.

Bakers must not increase prices on account of the demand, but must confine profits to reasonable amounts over actual purchase prices.
The food administration also has advised jobbers and retailers in breadstuffs that they must at once comply with the new regulations.

60 VIOLATIONS FUEL ORDER.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Toledo, Jan. 29.—Sixty violations of the federal fuel order were reported today to the county food and fuel committee by investigators.
The charges, most of which are against small merchants and manufacturers, are that they failed to close their places of business Monday. It is expected that prosecutions will be ordered.

At the Full of the Moon.
Does the moon remind you of anything, he asked, sentimentally, thinking of their courtship days.
Yes, said his wife.
What? he asked.
You, she said, on club nights.—
Boston Transcript

What makes that hen of yours
cackle so loudly? Inquired Jenkins of his neighbor.
Why, they've just laid a cornerstone for the new workingmen's club across the road, and she's trying to make the neighbors think she did it.—Chicago Herald.

THIS NEW BLOUSE OF JAP CREPE WILL MAKE SPRING EVEN LOVELIER

This new blouse shown will be popular this spring and should give the season an even greater charm. The blouse is hand-made, flawlessly designed and of a very attractive blue and white striped Jap crepe. The white linen collar and cuffs are interesting and enhance the beauty of the blouse. The hat is a very simple affair of a model that will be in favor this spring and summer and its only adornment is a band of flowers around the crown.

FORTY-SEVEN
TOLL CLAIMED
IN AIR RAID

the Essex coast and one group the Kent coast practically simultaneously at about 8 p. m. The two former detachments headed toward London on parallel courses across Essex. The capital was approached from the east shortly after nine o'clock.
"Of the machines which crossed the Kent coast two dropped bombs
in the Isles of Thanet and Sheppey.
The remainder, crossing the Thames estuary, also approached east London through Essex.

"Apparently about 15 machines took part in these attacks, of which four or five reached the capital and dropped bombs in various districts between 9 and 10 p. m.
"Some time after the first attack
had terminated other enemy airplanes crossed the Essex coast. Only one of these reached London, which it entered from the north, bombs being dropped between 12:15 and 12:30 a. m. A number of machines of the Royal flying Corps went up. Two of our scouts encountered an enemy airplane over Essex. After a brief fight at close range the raider took fire and fell in flames to the ground 10,000 feet below. All three members of its crew were burned to death.

"Several other engagements with enemy machines were reported by our pilots, one of whom pursued a raider across the coast and fought an indecisive engagement over the sea.
All our pilots returned safely.
"Reports of the casualties will be published when complete lists are received."

ONLY SAFEGUARD IS VACCINATION

Health officer Dr. W. H. Knauss stated today that in order to minimize the danger of a smallpox epidemic every person should be vaccinated. Newark has no more than the usual number of cases in cities of like size but numerous families have been exposed and hence the necessity of safeguarding against the malady. Newark is one of the cities in which the epidemic of the disease and this can be prevented here by proper precaution. See your physician at once and submit to vaccination.

There's two things that you allus
take chances on at a country hotel—
hash an 'th' elevator. Some fellers
